DICK HYMAN AT THE PIANO WITH RHYTHM ACCOMPANIMENT

SEE OTHER SIDE FOR COMPLETE LISTING
Here's the superb sixth installment of Dick Hyman's wonderful marathon-like series of long-playing records — each and every one devoted to sixty great all-time hit songs. And, the present volume is really outstanding, surveying as it does the wares of some of America's finest tunesmiths — tunesmiths (to mention a few represented here) like Hoagy Carmichael, Ralph Rainger, Johnny Green, Edward Heyman, Ned Washington, Victor Young, Leo Robin, Frank Loesser, Victor Schertzinger, Richard Whiting, Burton Lane, Ted Koehler, Arthur Johnston, Sam Coslow, Frederick Hollander, Louis Alter, Rudolph Friml, Johnny Mercer, Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen, Mack David, Sammy Fain, Irving Kahal, Arthur Freed, E. Y. Harburg, Dana Suesse, Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart, Harry Warren, Jay Livingston, Ray Evans, Harold Arlen and Ann Ronnell. Sounds like a "Who's Who" of American popular music — and you'll find the terrific line-up of songs a veritable "What's What"! Some of these hits are nostalgic favorites from memory lane, others are of more recent dating — all, however, deserve the designation of "all time great". Dick styles the music beautifully, giving it varied, relaxed, easy-on-the-ears treatment all the way.

The beat is perfect for those who wish to dance along — the mood is perfect for those who just plain want to listen. And, as with all five previous volumes in this series, you'll have plenty of fun testing the memories of guests with titles. There's a tip-top listening time to be had by all here — so, what are you waiting for? Get this platter to your turntable but quick!
